To whom it may concern,

This letter is in reference to Doug and Marsha Woolley and their desire to adopt children. I have known Marsha for twenty-seven years and Doug for seven years. They are presently members of Victorious Life Church where I am one of the Associate Pastors.

I have worked with both of these individuals in various ministry positions and find them both to be extremely high quality people. They display a very high level of maturity, mental and emotional stability, and are highly respected people within our large congregation. They have been called upon to counsel others with marital problems indicating our level of trust in their solid relationship as a couple.

There is no question in my mind as to the desire of both of these people to parent additional children. The way they presently deal with their son Isaac is a strong testimony of their good parenting skills. I have never seen anything from either of them that would flag in any way my opinion of their ability to lovingly and successfully raise children. Both Marsha and Doug appear to be in excellent health and neither indulges in alcohol or drugs of any kind that I am aware of.

I have absolutely no reservations of any kind and would highly recommend both Doug and Marsha Woolley as prime candidates to adopt children. Any child would be truly blessed of God to be placed in their home.

Sincerely,

R. Dennis Bingham

To whom it may concern,

Let me begin by saying it is an honor to be a chosen reference for Doug and Marsha Woolley. We have known Doug for about ten years and Marsha about six. Over the years we have found them to be people who love the Lord Jesus Christ and trust in Him and His Word which has been the foundation of how they live their lives.

They are people of good character, with love, peace, kindness, gentleness, and a heart flooded with compassion. Their self image is governed by who they are in Christ and their ability to accept responsibility is one of great value. They are people of integrity and give 110 % of themselves in all they do. Doug and Marsha are not users of alcohol or drugs and are mentally, physically, and spiritually healthy in a very close relationship with a great deal of respect for each other

We have been a witness to how Doug and Marsha conduct themselves in the good times and the bad, and being parents and grandparents ourselves we know how difficult it can sometimes be in rearing children, but we have seen the way they handle the raising of their son Isaac and we are confident they can handle another child also.

We know that they would be wonderful parents to a child that would be blessed by being placed in their care.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I would like to describe for you my relationship and knowledge of Doug and Marsha Woodley. I have known them for approximately 2 and 1/2 years. I have been able to interact with them on both a peer level and as personal friends. They have always shown themselves trustworthy, truthful and open with all communications.

From our contacts together I have been able to witness two people who are very remarkable. Doug shows excellent leadership skills, communicates well and has a light and easy going manner. He shows a genuine interest in children and interacts very naturally with them. He seems very even tempered and is precise in his decision making.

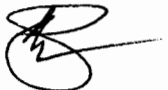

Marsha is very energetic . She is also very kind and gentle and has demonstrated ideal mothering skills in the raising of her son. She is even tempered and does not show outbursts of anger or frustration. She is very dedicated to her husband, son and mother.

Doug and Marsha interact well with each other and do not show any animosity among themselves or towards others. Their marriage seems stable and would be a safe environment for young children. I have not observed discipline used with their son but I see a well adjusted young man that seems relaxed and appropriate. This would indicate properly used discipline techniques. Doug and Marsha are in excellent health. They do not drink alcohol and do not use any illicit drugs.

Doug and Marsha have always shown dedication to what they believe is right. They live their faith and convictions for all to see and are not ashamed of their beliefs. At no time have I seen them demonstrate out of control behavior, profanity or any demeaning activity.

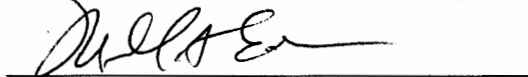

The children that are placed in their home will have a life long gift of the greatest kind. I would highly recommend them to you as adoptive parents. I have no reservations in recommending them. I do not feel you would be able to locate any more qualified or capable people to care for your children.

Sincerely,

To Whom it May concern,

This letter is in regards to Doug and Marsha Woolley. Doug and Marsha have been members of the church that I pastor for over nine years. Both are very faithful, active participants of our congregation. Doug teaches a weekly Sunday School Class and Marsha has preached for me on many occasions.

Separately, they are each wonderful individuals with a call of God on their lives. Doug is a very intelligent, organized, detailed person who uses his gifts to help and serve others. Marsha is a proficient speaker, who, although experiencing many difficulties in her life, is able to use her humor to minister to others.

Corporately, as a couple, they are a well-blended complete unit. They are obviously very much in love with each other and very loving parents to Isaac. I have no doubt in my mind that they would provide a stable, loving home to another child.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call me.

Serving God, serving people,

Edward Russo, Senior Pastor
